

Sales Promotion Association of Baltimore, Inc.

I hereby apply for membership in the Sales Promotion Association of Baltimore, Inc. ("the Club ") under the following business classification:

I agree to abide by the By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations of the Club, and to be in regular attendance or have my alternate attend in my absence.

OBJECTS OF CLUB (By-Laws Article 2 Section 3)

The principal object of the Club shall be to institute and maintain a method of exchanging and interchanging business information among its members; to create, foster, and encourage a spirit of cooperation, business efficiency, ethical business and professional practices amongst its members.

OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS (By-Laws Article IV, Section 2(a))

A member shall attend each regular meeting of the Club or send his/her designated alternate. Absence from four (4) consecutive Club meetings shall result in the member's suspension. This suspension will be noted in the next weekly newsletter. A suspended member's classification may be taken by an applicant without recourse to the usual membership process by the suspended member.
